The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. John 3:8

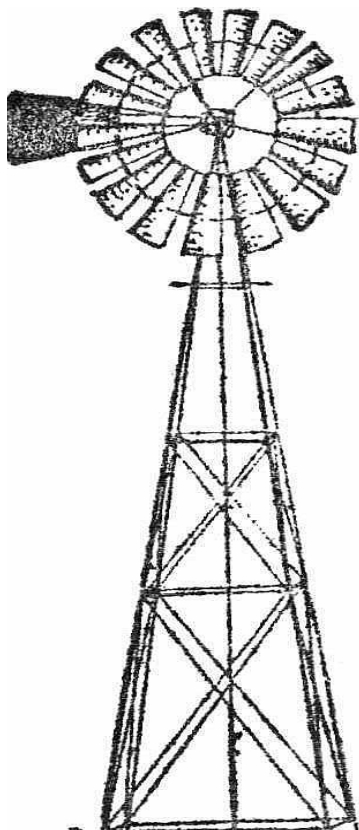

Greetings and God Blessings to All

Well another month of the "new normal" has come and gone. I pray that this message finds everyone safe and well. In these times of isolation, please reach out to those elderly who live alone or are in assisted care. We need to be God's messenger and remind them that they are not alone or forgotten, remind them that they are loved, and that soon people will be able to visit again.

We are still uncertain about our gathering and Board Meeting this month. It is a wait and see if further restrictions are lifted. There is still talk of limiting gathering sizes through the summer. This could jeopardize everything that we are scheduled. Please be in prayer about our future.

We have mentioned that since we have not had a gathering, our finances have declined. We are still in good shape for now. Thank you to those who donated to help offset the insurance premiums that we just paid but we are still several thousand short to recuperate that expense.

"Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To God's elect, exiles scattered throughout the provinces ... who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to be obedient to Jesus Christ and sprinkled with his blood: Grace and peace be yours in abundance." 1 Peter 1:1-2 NIV

To my Emmaus sisters and brothers, who God has chosen, and the Holy Spirit is working in, who submit to Christ and are given his grace.

At this time it is important for us to be the church that is scattered. We can't do things the way that we have always done things, even though those things helped to form us and shape us. More than ever we realize how important it is for us to have the means of grace in our toolbox through piety, study, and action. Without those means of grace we begin to feel even more isolated, frustrated, or worried. The means of grace help us to experience the fullness of God who is restoring and reconciling.

Walk #71

I had been praying about a passage to go with this article and received the following from my friend, Pastor Adam Knapp:
Lord, we all want life to return to normal. We have ridden this rollercoaster of emotions long enough. We are tired of the seemingly endless stream of anxiety-producing updates, reports, posts, clips, videos and commentaries.

We just want our normal lives back! We identify with the disciples, who after enduring the emotional whirlwind of events from Palm Sunday to Maudy Thursday and Good Friday to Resurrection Sunday decided to seek solace in the familiar setting of a fishing boat on the Sea Galilee.

Holy Spirit remind us that Christ's resurrection resurrects us to changed lives rather than the normal lives. Resurrect us today, O Risen One. Fill us with a new normal life oriented around the others seeking and others serving life of Jesus Christ our Lord. Transform us into instruments of righteousness, people whose peace, patience, kindness, joy, love, gentleness, goodness, faithfulness, and self-control show others how to live normally in the midst of abnormal times. In the name of the Eternal Three-in-one. Amen

God has a history of being with scattered wandering people, whether it be those following Moses through the wilderness, the early church meeting scattered that Peter is encouraging, or us.

Please keep your Emmaus sisters and brothers in Christ in prayer, we are all going through this in many different ways. Come Holy Spirit, come. Fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us fire of your love.

Grace and peace be your in abundance.

October 2020

Greetings Emmaus Brothers and Sisters: I hope and pray that you all are doing well and coping with everything during this time of uncertainty. None of us know what the future holds, but I know that we all know who holds the future in His hands. As we all try to figure out what the new normal is, I am choosing to go forward with plans to make the Women's Walk # 71 the Best Walk Ever for all the pilgrims whom God is going to call on this journey. As you can see from my heading, I am very hopeful that we will be able to go to team Selection on May 3rd. I graciously thank everyone who has heeded God's call to be part of this team. If God is still nudging you, there is still time to respond to His call. Remember, how blessed you were on your walk? If you have never worked a team, the blessing is very similar, yet different. I have worked about ten walks and each time I am in awe of how much God blesses me by His presence, by observing what He accomplishes in the hearts of the pilgrims, and by giving us many more forever friends.

We still need team members. We need at least 34 more pilgrims! We need members to commit to sharing different forms of Agape with us! The Women's Walk # 71 Agape Book is on the Windmill Emmaus Facebook page and it was recently e-mailed to each of you. We need prayer warriors to commit to pray for us now and during the 72 hour walk on Oct. 1-4, 2020! Pastor Adrienne Zermeno is in charge of the prayer vigil. Please contact her and sign up for a prayer slot(s) as soon as possible. We all know that the Walk cannot start until the prayer vigil is complete.

God Bless You All!

April 16-19, 2020

Hello Windmill Emmaus,

Do you ever feel as though there is someplace you should be? And not just a location? Maybe spiritually? Maybe intellectually? Maybe emotionally? The reason I ask?! April 2012, I was supposed to be on the Walk to Emmaus! I was there; heart, mind and soul. I was created as a new being through that weekend. It shaped me! It molded me! I was the "CLAY". Take a moment to remember that feeling you had!

The postponement of Walk #70 should not bring us down! It should lift us up! We know the joys, the feelings, the change that happens to most people in this 3 day journey. We know the life changes that happen as being drawn more closely to God. Let us continue to remember those feelings.

Walk to Emmaus #70 has been rescheduled to August 20-23, 2020. We cannot rest on our laurels. There are still Men that need this experience for themselves, their families, their churches, their communities, and for God. Let us keep the enthusiasm. Let us keep the motivation. Let us be diligent in the work of the Lord. And remember that this Walk to Emmaus #70 is for us as well.

Lastly, in today's World, the only Constant is change in our daily lives. His Love is steadfast, determined, diligent, and persevering. Let us be more like our Lord and Savior.
