For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. -Romans 8:38-39

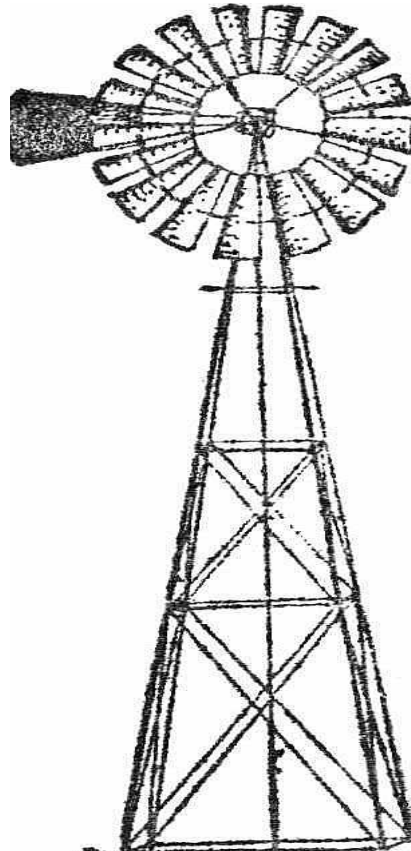

Hello to all my brothers and sisters in Christ!

Music is one of my favorite things. I love worship songs and I can't tell you how many times a song has brought me to tears. A few days ago, I was driving along listening to my favorite station, The Message. Reckless Love by Cory Asbury came on and as I sang it, this overwhelming feeling came over me...and yes, the tears began to pour. It's hard to explain why I cry. They are not tears of sadness and they are not tears of joy. Instead, it's almost like the Holy Spirit just wraps me up in His love and I am overwhelmed that someone as powerful and mighty as God could have such great love for someone like me.

The devil is our enemy and he prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. (1 Peter 5:8) One of his tactics is to put doubt in our minds.

The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. John 3:8

Grace and peace from Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior,

The 11th chapter of Hebrews gives a definition of faith: "Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible."

As we grow in faith through acts of piety, study, and action, one of the greatest challenges is helping others to see God reflected in our actions. We each have the ability to help another's faith grow by the ways we open ourselves to see God.

The reunion group questions are good at looking for God at work - for those places we see the invisible and even those places where discipleship is denied.

A few years ago we had a man, Joseph, in the Emmaus community who was really good at pointing out what God was doing behind the scenes. He worked construction and never missed the opportunity to bring God in his daily life.

Walk #73 Pilgrims and Team Members

To make us feel unworthy and unlovable, but this can't be further from the truth. You are more valuable than you can imagine!! Why am I so confident in this?? The answer is simple – the cross. When you come face-to-face with the cross and confront the fullness of its reality, you come face-to-face with your own value. You are worth so much that God sent Jesus to die in your place on the cross.

This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. -1 John 4:9-10

Here is the chorus of Cory Asbury's song, Reckless Love:

"Oh, the overwhelming, never-ending, reckless love of God. Oh, it chases me down, fights 'til I'm found, leaves the 99. I couldn't earn it, I don't deserve it, still You give yourself away. Oh, the overwhelming, never-ending, reckless love of God."

Even though the Bible tells us of God's love for us and has given us plenty of evidence to back it up, we may still struggle to fully understand it. But I am confident that the more time we spend in prayer and the more we are in His word, our minds will be renewed and we will become more confident in His love. I challenge you to dig a little deeper into His word. Read about His love for you. It knows no bounds; It is unconditional; It never changes. And for all of this, I am forever grateful!!

The next gathering will be Thursday, May 19th at the United Methodist Church in Fashing. Fellowship begins at 6:30pm and worship begins at 7:30pm. I look forward to seeing you all there!

The Lord bless you and keep you; The Lord make his face shine upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord turn his face toward you and give you peace. (Numbers 6:24-26)

God got all the glory and was turned to for help in times of challenge. Its that type of connection with God that helps to make the invisible seen.

My prayer is that you grow in seeing God and help others to see God too.

Walk # 72
April 21 – 24
2022

Greetings Windmill Emmaus Community,

This walk has been a few years in the making. I actually went on my pilgrim walk in 1998. I worked many walks and was involved early on. Then, life happened. My job moved me away and then I went back to college. After graduation I got married and moved to Tucson and then Turkey. When we left Turkey, we returned to Karnes City. Emmaus was calling me back and it was a great calling. I will say that being an ALD and LD was more fun than I ever expected.

I want to thank the team again for putting in the work and committing to the weekend. I would jokingly ask the outside team if the next agape drop was ready, then I would get run out of the room. I knew they were ready and never worried about a thing. The conference room was rocking from day one. If you were at the gathering and heard the chorus to the centering song you can just imagine what it sounded like.

I can't thank the community enough for pushing for pilgrims. I told people it was a blessing to have the walk filled by late March. Most of my work was done before April and it took a lot of pressure off of me. As I was told on the Thursday of the walk, "take it all in, you'll be an X soon." I am grateful for those words, because I did (TRY TO) sit back and take it all in. Also, as I was reminded at the gathering, I am now a "HAS BEEN"!!! I'm perfectly fine with being able to join the club. Hope to see y'all in Fashing at the next gathering.

The scripture/theme for Walk #72 was taken from Ephesians 6:10-11—Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes.

Walk # 73
October 6 – 9
2022

Greetings my Brothers and sisters,

I'm so happy to report that walk number 73 has officially begun its meeting stages. We had our first team meeting last Saturday and I can truly tell you that God was all over it. We have quite a few Pilgrim applications that we have received already.

Please continue to pray for us as we move through our meetings, for the speakers, and clergy, music, and all who are working with God's help to make this -HIS- Best Walk ever. I've been asked to give a kind reminder that pilgrims spots are officially reserved once we receive a completed application as well as the associated fees.

Scholarships are available for those that may need financial assistance by request. If anyone needs more information on this process, let me know and I can direct you to the proper channels.

Again, I'm so very excited to watch and work as God puts everything in place. Thank you all for your continued prayers.
