The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. John 3:8

“Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable.” ~Isaiah 40:28

As Women’s Walk 71 looms just over the horizon, I sit in the prewalk explosion that happens in my living room getting things ready for the walk. There are books, agape, shirts, and lists. All of those who work the walk have various lists that start to take shape and form. There are lists for the things we need to do and bring and lists for getting stuff done so we can step away. Those lists start to get prioritized with urgent tasks. As I sit here I think about how limited we all are - limited in time, energy and capacity.

Then I think about the One who is infinite and unlimited, who effortlessly accomplishes all that He desires. This God, Isaiah says, can measure the oceans in the hollow of His hand and collect the dust of the earth in a basket (Isaiah 40:12). He names the stars of the heavens and directs their path (v. 26), knows the rulers of the world and oversees their careers (v. 23), considers islands mere specks of dust and the nations like drops in the sea (v. 15).

Thankful

Colossians 3 15:17 NIV

¹⁵ Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. ¹⁶ Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts. ¹⁷ And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Usually after 4 or 5 reminders to write my article for the Breeze, I will take a moment either at my desk or on the back porch and ask God what message He would like me to convey. Generally, if I sit there quietly, something will come to mind. Until this month. As I sit here trying to write, the only message that comes to mind is “you are on your own this month”.

My first thought was "Well Thanks". Then it hit me, Peace, Love and Thank You.

As we go about our daily lives, how often do we stop and offer a prayer of Thanks to God. Or do you, like me, tend to take your Blessings for granted. I have so many things to be thankful for. My wife, my children, my life, our families, our church, our Emmaus Community just to name a few. What really brings this to my attention was Tricia's health scare recently. Since that day, I have made it a point to Thank God for my Blessings.

Why does it take a tragedy, illness or even a death to bring us back to this realization? We should lead our lives with Christ in our hearts. We should strive to live in peace. Will we have disagreements with one another, yes, but they should be resolved with peace and love. It is OK to disagree.

Let's go forward in peace with the Grace of our Lord, Jesus Christ, in our hearts. If each and every one of us would share this message with our families, friends and neighbors, our World would look different immediately.

God Bless and De Colores!!!

"To whom will you compare me?" He asks (v. 25). "The Lord is the everlasting God," Isaiah replies. "He will not grow tired or weary" (v. 28).

Stress and strain are never good for us, but on this day they deliver a powerful lesson. The unlimited God is not like me. He accomplishes everything He wishes. I repent of the times when I think I too have to be unlimited or get frustrated at being limited - God created us this way. I praise God for all that God will do and has done on this walk - and through all the fourth days to come. God has some amazing work yet to be done. May we each draw into God's unlimited strength today so that God will accomplish all that God has promised.

Greetings Windmill Emmaus Community,

Not a whole lot has been going on here lately. We will have our first team meeting on November 20th at Beeville FUMC and that's when the ball will start rolling. I will send out a reminder email in the next week or two to the team. Those giving talks will also get an email reminder. Women's walk #71 is right around the corner on November 7-10th . There are still spots available, so don't be shy and ask that person that's been on your mind. Please try and make it to the candlelight or closing or both.

I am happy to report that we gained a pilgrim last month and now are at 5 pilgrims. We do have some work to do though. In order to fill this walk with 36 pilgrims we will need just over 4 pilgrims per month.

If we aren't asking people, they won't know about the walk.

The scripture/theme for Walk #72 is taken from Ephesians 6:11—Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes.

Please feel free to contact me 210-286-5345, chriscarter72@hotmail.com or for mailing info, Chris Carter 1088 FM 99, Karnes City, TX 78118. See y'all at the September gathering in Beeville!!!

Emmaus Brothers and Sisters: Greetings!

As of this writing, we are only five days away from the Windmill Emmaus Women's Walk #71 which will be "The Best Walk Ever"! I think this walk will be the longest walk ever in the history of Emmaus. In the Book of Hebrews, God calls us to persevere. "You need to persevere for when you have done the will of God, you will receive what he has promised." Hebrews 10:36

Walk #71 Team members have all waited patiently for two years for this walk to come to fruition and we all totally understand the meaning of perseverance, as we have experienced it firsthand! In the Book of James, he writes, "Blessed is the man who perseveres under trial, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life which God has promised to those who love him." James 1:12 I was named the Lay Director in Nov. 2019 and if my count is correct, this is the 23rd Breeze article I have written. I praise God for giving me the opportunity to share my faith and my heart with all of you each month. I know that God has called the perfect team together to serve as Jesus' hands and feet to work with this specific group of pilgrims. James 5:11 states, "As you know, we consider blessed those who have persevered." I know that our entire team will be blessed as they are being a blessing to our pilgrims.

We had our last team meeting in Sept. and we listened to the last three awesome talks given by three awesome team members. We are back up to 26 pilgrims and I pray that number remains constant.
