The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. John 3:8

Our Perspective Matters
The righteous perishes, and no man takes it to heart; Merciful men are taken away, while no one considers that the righteous is taken away from evil. He shall enter into peace; they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness. Isaiah 57:1-2

A friend of mine went home to be with the Lord recently. God had blessed her with a heart of wisdom as she served Him in ministry as well as in the company of those in the world. Neta and I, and many others, prayed fervently for her healing and for extended life but the Lord took her home a few months after her diagnosis.

It is difficult to understand why the Lord would want to take someone home to be with Him when she was serving Him so faithfully and fully here. Thinking in the earthly perspective, she was too young to die, still had too much left she could do and was too much of a godly model. When I think about her from this perspective, I am struck by God's will and confused by God's ways.

*Emmaus Family,
Just coming off a men's team meeting reminds me of how important it is for us to stay connected in fellowship. Whether it be a team meeting, walk or gathering. Matthew 18:20, "For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there."*

My wife, Judy, always refers to being at Camp Zephyr as, "Being on Holy Ground." I so agree with that statement, but I also believe that as we gather each month, the same can be said. God knows us all so well, because I know that just about the time my light starts to flicker...Boom!!! A team meeting, walk, gathering, for who knows better what we need and when we need it more than God. As we always say, "on God's time." Thank you, Jesus, for your perfect timing.

I want to remind our awesome community that our April gathering will be Team Consecration for our upcoming men's walk. Hope to see y'all there. Remember Matthew 18:20, "For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there."

God Bless,

And I just want her back. However, when I pull myself back enough to see it from an eternal perspective, I am sincerely envious that I am not in the presence of the Lord with her right now too. Our hearts should groan for heaven even though our flesh refuses to accept death. The dichotomy of life and death is a continual reminder that earth is not our home. We are just passing through. The goal of each Christian should be that our walk with Him doesn't change from here to there. The place changes but not the relationship.

Our perspective matters. If we choose to continually see things from man's perspective, we will be discouraged and disappointed with the Lord. If we choose to get into the Word and see life from His perspective, we find joy, peace and excitement by drawing closer to Him. I am saddened by my loss of a sister in Christ but I am also thankful that we will remain friends for eternity.

De Colores,
Ralph McMullen

Greetings Emmaus Community,

We had a good Team Meeting in March at the Taft Methodist Church. We heard four great talks along with some team training and good fellowship. The next team meeting will be April 13th, at the First Presbyterian Church, Beeville. The meeting will be for the inside and outside team members. We will hear the last four talks. Final instructions and preparation details will be provided. Continue praying for the Lord's Walk #76.

The pilgrim slots are filling up fast, so if you have a pilgrim, you have been praying about, I suggest you get an application in that person's hand ASAP. You wouldn't want him to be on the waiting list, would you? Don't let the Lord down if He has put someone on your heart to sponsor for Walk #76.

The Gathering in April will be Team Consecration. Hope everyone can attend for this special dedication and prayer for the team.

"You, LORD, keep my lamp burning; my God turns darkness into light."

- Psalm 18:28

De Colores Windmill Community,

I am getting so excited!! We went to team selection on Sunday afternoon, and we now have the BEST TEAM EVER for the BEST WALK EVER!!! This is definitely God's TEAM! I will be making phone calls to everyone as well as sending out letters with talk outlines to the whole team. Please be patient as it is a lot of people. I look forward to chatting with each and every one of this team. Now on to getting 36 Pilgrims who God wants there. If you know of someone who would be a great pilgrim, please begin to approach them now and talk about it. If you need applications please let me know. I carry them with me everywhere! Our first team meeting will be on Saturday, May 18th at FUMC in Beeville!!! Please be in prayer for our team, those who are giving a talk as well as our future pilgrims!!
