Lay Director

Emmaus Family,

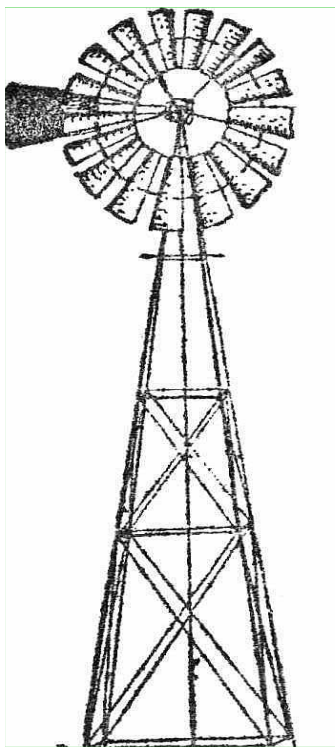

Matthew 25:21, "Wonderful" his master replied. "You are a good and faithful servant. I left you in charge of only a little, but now I will put you in charge of much more. Come and share in my happiness."

Coming off a walk is always such a spiritual high for our community. Job well done and kudos to the team God called for walk #77. If you missed our October gathering, you missed a good one. We heard from a number of babe chicks who shared their walk experience with the community. It's such a blessing watching our Windmill Community grow. Know that we missed seeing you too. We're all called to serve and that can look like many different things, from the greatest responsibility, to what you may consider the least, but nothing is small in the Body of Christ, and in God's eyes. Please join us at monthly gatherings. It's always a blessing.

Just an FYI: Our November gathering has changed locations. It will be held in Aransas Pass at the Aransas Pass Methodist Church. It will be our last gathering of the year, as there is not a gathering in December.

Grace and Peace,
Mitch Luna
Community Lay Director

The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. John 3:8

It sure was great to see everyone at the October gathering, and to hear from our new baby chick's. Studing in the Song of Solomon for an up coming sermon I came across this nugget. It address conflict. As I have grown older I find I have less time or energy for conflicts. I wanted to share with you the way I have learned (through MUCH trial and error) how to deal with conflicts when they rear their heads in your life:

Song of Solomon 6:2

My beloved has gone to his garden, To the beds of spices, To feed his flock in the gardens, And to gather lilies.

NKJV

Conflict is a part of life and because of that reality, we must be ready to learn from the disagreements we may have with others. One of the greatest ways to grow through conflict is to first take time alone and pray.

Rather than acting out in anger in those first moments of an argument, stop and retreat to your corners. During those few moments, in a quiet place, spend time in prayer with the Lord.

Don't simply pray that your spouse, friend, or child will realize the error of their ways, but pray for your own heart to be changed. Ask the hard questions of God, "Was there something I did wrong?" "How could I have responded better?" No matter the circumstance, we are all prone to mistakes and should be honest in evaluating ourselves

What to know about sponsoring a pilgrim...

SPONSORSHIP

Without sponsors, there will be no pilgrims! So thank you for taking on the responsibility to sponsor a pilgrim for a walk.

A sponsor should commit to recruiting strong church leaders in order to strengthen the local church, and hopefully to become leaders of our Emmaus Community.

Being a sponsor has a lot of responsibilities...the first is to spend LOTS OF TIME IN PRAYER! God has already revealed the name of the pilgrim HE has chosen for you to sponsor, and pray for that pilgrim before, during and after their Walk.

After you've talked to your prospective pilgrim, give them an application to complete.

LETTERS: Begin getting addresses for their agape letters.

Stay in touch with your pilgrim, and make sure they know you're there to support them. Remind them of the things they need to pack.

AGAPE: You as a sponsor should take your pilgrims favorite drink and some sort of food agape and/or other agape.

Day of the Walk: Pick up your pilgrim with plenty of time to take them to eat and then on to the Walk site and help them get settled in.

After the Lay Director calls the pilgrims together, you will soon go to the Chapel for sponsors hour. It's important that you attend this time of worship. It is there that you will pray with your pilgrims lanyard and hang it on the cross that will be presented to them at the end of their walk.

CANDLELIGHT: You are to attend the Candlelight Service on Saturday night. Bring any late letters you may get for your pilgrims. Here once again you may have the opportunity to pray with your pilgrims cross. Candlelight is one of the most moving events of the Walk.

CLOSING: You are to come to closing and your pilgrim's spouse is invited to come as well. We know how excited you are to hear ALL about it.

But remember your responsibilities do not end at the closing...it is your responsibility to get your new pilgrim to gatherings and try to help them find a reunion group.

Encourage them to make agape for future walks, or even sign up to work a team or help where ever needed.

Your final responsibility is to TEACH THEM TO BE A GOOD SPONSOR, by helping them understand the responsibilities of what a good sponsor does. The best way to do this is by example.
