

The Windmill's Breeze

Volume 35 Number 2

Lay Director

As I write my first Breeze article, I assure you my husband left me with a hard act to follow. I pray my monthly devotionals are spirit filled also. Since the beginning of 2025, God placed a scripture on my heart and it has persistently come to mind. Proverbs 3:6 says, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths straight." I'm not sure where God is going with this scripture, but I can tell you I'm committed to try and follow Him. As a wife, mother and grandmother I can tell you worry is my constant companion, and I'm trying to overcome that stronghold. I'm wrapping up a 21 day devotional and looking forward to a new Lenten devotional. My goal is to lean in to focused prayer and scripture reading. It is my attempt to grow closer to Christ as I lead our community this year. I'm excited to see what God has in store for our Windmill Emmaus community. Please continue to pray for our 2 upcoming walks, the team members and the pilgrims God brings us. See you at the next gathering on February 20th in Beeville at the Presbyterian Church. De Colores,

The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit. John 3:8

Have you ever thought, "Am I next in line?" When will it be my turn? As I get older I seem to have a sense of urgency about everything. I find myself struggling to wait on God's provision and direction. I just want to get on, with getting on.

"In their hearts, humans plan their course, but the Lord establishes their steps." - Proverbs 16:9

When will my time come? This is a question that I often cry out to God on a regular basis. Sound familiar? In life, many times I've felt that I've been next in line for a new opportunity to manifest. I have felt overlooked and discouraged because outcomes and opportunities did not evolve within the timetable that I created in my mind. After I've complained and, got off my pity pot, God reminds me that He has not forgotten about me. The good news is that God has not forgotten about you while you are waiting.

One thing I've learned: You don't want to jump the line in God's plan for your life. Proverbs 16:9 reminds us that God orders our steps and it is essential to commit our plans to God. Your "next in line" prayer may be for a job, marriage, relationship, or clearer purpose. God will call your name when it's time and according to His specific purpose. Don't grow weary while you are waiting. Be encouraged to know that God's plan for your life is good.

I often pray this when I get restless waiting on God. I would encourage you to do the same:

Dear God, thank you for wanting what is best for my life at all times. In times when I have felt overlooked and discouraged, remind me of your promise that your plans are always to prosper and not to harm me. You have not forgotten about me and know me by name. For this, I give you praise. In Jesus' Name, AMEN

Walk # 78

Apr 3-6, 2025

De Colores!

As we begin a new year, I can't help but be nervously excited about Walk #78! 2025 has started with many exciting things, not the least of which was our January 4th team meeting.

As we enter this new year and get closer to the walk, please prayerfully consider sponsoring a pilgrim and get those applications in!

May GOD bless you all in this new year.

Jim

Regina Terry

Lay Director

Walk # 79

Dear Emmaus Community,

I am incredibly humbled and honored to serve as the Women's Lay Director for Walk #79. This journey is one of deep significance for the Lord has called me. I am filled with gratitude for having the opportunity to walk alongside such faithful and devoted community as we prepare for "The best walk ever!"

As we are moving forward, I am excited to announce that we are now accepting applications for team members. Whether you feel called to serve on an inside team, an outside team, your participation is vital to the success of this walk. Each role is essential, and together, we can create a meaningful experience for the pilgrims God has already assigned to Walk #79. If you feel led to serve, please complete an application and return it to myself or Leanne Fox as soon as possible. Team selection is in March.

This journey is not just about planning and preparation; it is a heartfelt mission to provide a transformative experience for the pilgrims. As we prepare, I ask for your prayers – not only for our team but for each pilgrim who will be attending, their families and their sponsors. Pray that their hearts will be open to receive the love, grace, and renewal that God has in store for them.

Thank you in advance for being part of this journey with me. Your prayers, agape, your willingness to serve, and your support mean more than words can express. Together, we are making a difference, one step at a time.

With love and gratitude,

Regina Terry
